Privacy Policy 2019

BY REQUESTING OR SUBMITTING A CLAIMS PACK (IN WHOLE OR PART), USING OUR WEBSITE, OR USING OUR SERVICES AND GIVING YOUR INFORMATION TO US, YOU INDICATE THAT YOU UNDERSTAND HOW WE WILL USE AND PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU AS DESCRIBED IN THIS PRIVACY POLICY.

Our website (Website) is operated by Moneyandmeclaims Limited (the Money and Me), a claims management business authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.

Unless stated otherwise, Money and Me Claims is a data controller in respect of all personal data submitted in our Claims Pack or collected on our Website which means that we are responsible for ensuring that we do so in full compliance with the data protection legislation and all other related privacy laws.

This Privacy Policy explains what personal information we may collect about you, how it is used, and what we do to keep it secure. We also explain your rights in respect of your personal information and how to contact us should this become necessary.

Links to other websites

Please note, our Website may contain links to other websites that are not controlled by us. These links are provided for your convenience. We are only responsible for our own privacy practices and our security of this Website. We recommend that you check the privacy and security policies and procedures of each and every other website that you visit.

THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT and ITS SOURCES

In order to provide you with the products and services you require, we may collect personal information about you from our Claims Pack, this Website or our other websites, telephone conversations, emails and written and verbal communications. This may include, for example, your name, address, email address, phone number, date of birth and details of any services you request or which we provide to you or which are relevant to the service(s) in which you are interested.

We may supplement the information that you provide with other information that we obtain as a result of our dealings with you, from others who act on your behalf or who have been involved in your financial affairs or relating to any claim you may wish to make (such as your financial advisers (including your IFA, or SIPP trustee) or the Financial Services Compensation Scheme) or which we receive from other organisations such as underwriters, regulators and legal advisers.

If you take up or express an interest in any of the products or services of any of our Group Companies or Partners they may let us know and we will add this information to our records.

Information about other people

If you provide information to us about any person other than yourself, you must ensure that they understand how their information will be used and that you are authorised to disclose it to us, and to consent to its use on their behalf, before doing so.

IP addresses

In order to understand how users use our Website and our services, we may collect IP addresses.

Cookies

In common with many other website operators, we may use standard technology called 'cookies' on our Website. Cookies are small pieces of information that are stored by your browser on your computer's hard drive and they are used to record how you navigate our Website on each visit.

Our cookies are used to enable us to develop our Website and to enable you to properly navigate it. We use cookies to collect personal information to enable us to reflect our users interests and by noting who has seen which pages, properties and advertisements (including click through from emails), how frequently particular pages are visited and to enable us to determine the most popular areas of our Website. We may use cookies to enrich your experience of using this Website by allowing us to tailor what you see to what we have learned about your preferences during your visits to our Website. Sometimes we may use services of third parties and they may use cookies on our behalf in order to provide their services.

You may also get cookies (including Flash cookies) from our Partners and advertisers if you click on their links or adverts. You should check their privacy and security policies to understand how they use these.

Preventing use of cookies

Most browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually change your browser to prevent cookies being stored. With experience, you can usually choose to switch off all cookies or to allow only certain 'trusted' sites to place cookies.

For further information on cookies and Flash cookies and how to switch them off see the Information Commissioner's website at www.ico.gov.uk or visit www.allaboutcookies.org or www.aboutcookies.org.

PLEASE NOTE, IF YOU DO TURN COOKIES OFF, THIS WILL LIMIT THE SERVICE THAT WE ARE ABLE TO PROVIDE TO YOU AND MAY AFFECT YOUR USER EXPERIENCE

HOW WE WILL USE YOUR INFORMATION

All personal information that we obtain about you and/or any other person whose details you provide will be held, used, and protected by us in accordance with the latest data protection law, , this Privacy Policy and any Terms of Engagement we agree with you. We will primarily use the personal information:

- for registration and general administration (including verification, vetting and security checking)
- to provide and administer the products and services you request from us and any account you have with us (which will include tracing and collecting debts and fraud prevention)
- to communicate with you in the event that any products or services requested are unavailable or if there is a query or problem with your requests
- to obtain information from third parties who may have had some involvement in the subject matter of any claim you may have and those who may become involved in the claim
- to ensure appropriate documentation is prepared for any claim(s) we are dealing with for you
- to notify you of our progress in respect of the products and services we provide to you
- to comply with our legal and other regulatory obligations as a responsible claims management company
- for record keeping purposes
- to carry out market research so that we can improve the goods and services we offer
- for research purposes and to enable us to understand requirements and develop our services
- to track and analyse activity on our websites
- to create an individual profile for you so that we can enhance your user experience and to understand and respect your preferences.

With your consent, we will use the information we hold to inform you of products, services, events, newsletters and other information and opportunities that may be of interest to you.

Consent and lawful processing of personal data

The legal basis for the collection and processing of your personal data is:

- for administration and service delivery: that it is necessary to fulfil the contract that you are going to enter into or have entered into with us
- for regulatory matters: that it is necessary to comply with a legal obligation to which we, as a responsible claims management company, are subject
- for direct marketing: that you have given your consent/or we have a legitimate interests that does not override your data rights.
- in all other cases: that it is necessary for our legitimate interests which are to ensure our services meet or exceed our legal and regulatory obligations and/or to secure payment and this does not prejudice or harm your rights and freedoms

Disclosing your personal information

If you make a claim using our services, we will have to provide a lot of the information we hold (and which relates to the claim) to those against whom the claim is to be made. Where they are no longer trading, this will be the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

We may also have to provide certain information about you and your claim to Wybract Ltd (a third party claims processor acting on our behalf in respect of your claim), underwriters, insurers, legal advisers or, where we agree to extend credit to you, to lenders or payment recovery agents. Where required to do so by law or by a regulator, we may provide some of your personal information to appropriate regulators.

Occasionally, we may need to appoint other organisations to carry out some activities on our behalf. These will include for example, enquiry agents, couriers and service providers that provide telephone call handling agents as well as technology hosts, printing companies and mailing houses. In these circumstances, we will ensure that personal information is properly protected and that it is only used in accordance with this Privacy Policy and applicable data protection legislation.

INVITATIONS, NEWSLETTERS, OFFERS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Money and Me is part of a group of companies, some of which provide services to Money and Me and others that carry out other activities on their own behalf (Group Companies).

For an up-to-date list of our Group Companies click here.

For an up-to-date list of our Partners click here.

Money and Me, our Group Companies and the Partners would like to contact you and/or any person whose information you provide to us to invite you to enjoy other products and services in a number of ways, including by post, telephone, SMS, email or by social media.

Details of how to opt-in to or opt-out of receiving these invitations are on relevant pages of our Website, in relevant forms you complete and/or in the electronic message you receive.

Preferences / subscribe / unsubscribe

You, and any other person whose information you have provided to us, can change your/their mind about receiving details of other products and services at any time by using any of the methods shown below (see the section 'How to contact us' below) or by following the instructions with each offer you/they receive.

SECURITY

We take the security of personal information seriously. We have security procedures and technology in place to ensure that our paper and computer systems and databases are protected against unauthorised use, loss and damage.

MONITORING

We will monitor and record telephone calls and any live chats for security purposes, to verify and demonstrate compliance with our legal and regulatory obligations and to improve the quality of the services we provide to you. These will be stored in compliance with our Recording Calls and Communications Policy.

USE OF YOUR INFORMATION OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN UNION

Other than in the context of any products or services we provide on your instructions, we would not usually expect to transfer any of your personal information outside of the European Economic Area.

However, if we do transfer your personal information to other territories, we will take proper steps to ensure that the information is properly protected in accordance with this Privacy Policy and Data Protection Legislation which may change from time to time.

DATA RETENTION

Website enquiries and all other personal information will normally be retained for six years after your last engagement with us or the final decision in any claim you may have (whichever is later). After that period, all of your personal information will be permanently deleted. We retain your data for record-keeping purposes only, unless during this period we identify further potential claims, in which case we may re-contact you.

CHANGES TO THIS PRIVACY POLICY

Privacy laws and practice are constantly developing and we aim to meet high professional standards. Our policies and procedures are, therefore, under continual review. We may, from time to time, update our security and privacy policies. We will put a notice on our website informing you that we have updated our Privacy Policy and you can always check this page periodically to see our latest policy. In the event you have a Privacy Policy which differs from the version published on our website, the website version will prevail.

UPDATING AND CORRECTING INFORMATION

We encourage you to promptly update your personal information if it changes. If you delay, this could slow down any claim we are handling for you.

You can update or correct your personal information online in relevant client areas or by contacting us in writing or by email (see the section 'How to contact us' below). Please include your name, address and/or email address when you contact us as this helps us to ensure that we accept amendments only from the correct person.

If you are providing updates or corrections about another person, we may require you to provide us with proof that you are authorised to provide that information to us.

YOUR RIGHTS

You have a number of legal rights in respect of your personal data. These include:

- access. The right to receive a copy of the personal data that we hold about you. The same right applies to any other person whose personal data you provide to us. We will require proof of identity and proof of authority if the request comes from someone other than the person whose data we are asked to provide. This will ensure we only provide information to the correct person. We normally expect to respond to requests within 28 days of receiving them.
- withdraw consent to direct marketing. You can exercise this right at any time and can update your preferences yourself or ask us to do it for you. See section 'Updating and correcting information' above for details.
- withdraw consent to other processing. Where the only legal basis for our processing your personal data is that we have your consent to do so, you may withdraw your consent to that processing at any time and we will have to stop processing your personal data. Please note, this will only affect new activity and does not mean that processing carried out before you withdrew your consent is unlawful.
- rectification. If you consider any of your personal data is inaccurate, you can correct it yourself or ask us to do it for you (see section 'Updating and correcting information' above for details).
- restriction. In limited circumstances you may be able to require us to restrict our processing of your personal data. For example, if you consider what we hold is inaccurate and we disagree, the processing may be restricted until the accuracy has been verified
- erasure. In some circumstances, for example, where we have no legal basis for retaining your personal data, you may be entitled to require us to delete your personal data.
- portability. Where you have provided personal data electronically to us, you may be entitled to request us to provide that data to you or to have us transmit it to another organisation.
- to complain to the Information Commissioner. If you have any concerns about the way we process your personal data, we would prefer you to let us know so that we can try to resolve the matter. However, you have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner which is the supervisory authority in the United Kingdom. You can do this by calling their helpline on 0303 123 1113. However, Money and Me would like the chance to deal with your complaint initially therefore would appreciate if you contacted us in the first instance using the contact details set out below.
